If a player under the age of 18 qualifies for the PGA TOUR Canada, the player would not become eligible for PGA TOUR Canada membership until his 18th birthday.

In accordance with PGA TOUR University Ranking List eligibility, all collegiate players will be ineligible for PGA TOUR University (in the current season and subsequent seasons) if they compete in a Qualifying Tournament for Korn Ferry Tour, PGA TOUR Latinoamérica or PGA TOUR Canada.

Exception: Players in the current season's Velocity Global Ranking may participate in the PGA TOUR Canada Qualifying Tournament.

Entry fee includes green fee, range usage on the practice and competition days, as well as liability insurance coverage, covering liability which may arise as a result of the applicant's presence at a qualifying competition site.

Entry Availability, Deadline & Application Selection

The online application process will be available beginning Monday, January 9th at 12:00 PM (EST) for all member and non-member applicants. Only online entries will be accepted. Member applicants include 2022 PGA TOUR Canada members, 2022-2023 PGA TOUR Latinoamérica, & 2023 Korn Ferry Tour Members.

The entry deadline is Wednesday, January 18th at 5:00 PM (EST). After the entry deadline, PGA TOUR Canada will accept applications on an available basis. The entry fee for any player attempting to enter after the entry deadline will be $2,650 USD.

Applications may be submitted for the one-week period as indicated by the entry availability and deadlines noted here.

Completed applications will be randomly selected until all tournament sites are filled in accordance with the Field Size & Site

Assignment sections below. Any applicant whose applications are not selected pursuant to this process will not be eligible to compete in the 2023 PGA TOUR Canada Qualifying Tournament, and their entry fees will be refunded.

Note: Incomplete applications, or those not completed through the online application platform, will not be accepted. The entry fee must be paid in full in order for an application to be complete.

Notification of site assignments will be determined no later than Tuesday, January 24th and be accompanied by additional site-specific information.

Format

A 72-hole stroke play competition with the low 30 qualifiers and any player tied for 30th place earning eligibility status for the 2023 PGA TOUR Canada season. The winner of each site will be exempt for the entire 2023 season and not subject to any reshuffle(s).

Finishers 2-10 will be exempt through the reshuffle which will occur approximately halfway through the season. In the event of a tie for 1st or 10th position, there will be a hole-by-hole playoff immediately following play. Finishers 11-30 and any player tied for 30th place will receive conditional status to the PGA TOUR Canada for the 2023 season. See 'Performance Benefits' below for additional information on benefits to each membership eligibility status.

Field Size & Site Assignment

Maximum of 132 players per site. All 2022 members of PGA TOUR Canada, as well as all 2022-2023 PGA TOUR Latinoamérica and 2023 Korn Ferry Tour Members will receive priority in site assignment but will be drawn on a random basis from within the same pool of member applicants. Member and non-member entries will not be assigned on a first-come, first-serve basis and both are subject to the same entry period. The PGA TOUR Canada reserves the right to balance the field size at qualifying sites by assigning any applicant, including members of the aforementioned tours whose applications are received prior to the entry deadline, to other sites as deemed necessary.

Should each of the sites/fields reach the maximum number of players, additional applicants will be assigned as an alternate to their highest-ranked (i.e., first) site preference. Similar to site assignments, alternates will be assigned on a random basis and PGA TOUR Canada reserves the right to balance the field size at qualifying sites by assigning any alternate to another site as deemed necessary, regardless of preference.

Alternates

An alternate list will only be applicable if all sites reach maximum field sizes.

Each site may, depending on the number of entries received, have its own alternate list. Once a site has exhausted its alternate list, the next highest-assigned alternate at the next qualifying site will be eligible for any available playing opportunity. The 'next qualifying site' is deemed to be either the next qualifying site to be played after the one in question, or the first qualifying site in the schedule if no qualifying tournaments have been contested at that time.

If and when a spot becomes available at any of the sites, it will be offered to the next alternate, either from that site or the next highest-assigned alternate at the next qualifying site. If an alternate chooses not to accept a spot, he will retain his spot on the alternates list and the next- available alternate will be contacted and so on, until the spot is filled. Any alternate withdrawing from a qualifying competition site alternate list will receive a full refund at the time of their withdrawal or once that qualifying site has been contested. If an alternate is not offered a spot (i.e., due to an insufficient number of withdrawals) they would also receive a full refund. Note: Alternates wishing to wait on-site at qualifying competition location may do so at their discretion. If, beginning during the official practice round/registration date (i.e., the date preceding the first round of official competition) through the last starting time of the first round of the competition, a player withdraws or does not show for his starting time, an on-site alternate will be eligible to compete. The procedure for using alternates in this manner will use the ranking for alternates as outlined below, but only apply to those on-site.

Site assignments, once distributed, are considered final.

Starting Times

Starting times will be available two days preceding the Qualifying competition at the qualifying site or online at www.pgatour.com/canada
